206-8.12 Home Occupation

A. Defined

A lawful occupation that provides a product or service that is conducted wholly within a dwelling unit. The use includes a family day care regulated under 206-5.2.

B. Use Standards

Where a home occupation is allowed as a limited use, it is subject to the following:

1. General Provisions

- a. No more than two home occupations may be established in a dwelling.
- b. A home occupation must be clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling for residential purposes.

2. Physical Limitations

The floor area of a dwelling unit devoted to all home occupations must not exceed 25% of the floor area of the dwelling.

3. Alterations to the Dwelling and Exterior Appearances

- a. The exterior appearance and character of the dwelling must remain that of a dwelling.
- b. No internal or external alterations inconsistent with the residential use and character of the buildings are permitted.
- c. No display or storage of products, materials, or machinery where they may be visible from outside the dwelling is permitted.
- d. No activity associated with the home occupation may be visible outside the dwelling.
- e. No additional signage is allowed for the home occupation.

4. Vehicles

One business vehicle may be kept on-site, provided it is used exclusively by an occupant of the dwelling. This vehicle may only be an automobile, pick-up truck, van or sport-utility vehicle.

5. Equipment, Off-Site Impacts, and Nuisances

- a. No home occupation may generate traffic, sound, smell, vibration, light, or dust that is offensive or that creates a nuisance.
- b. No equipment that interferes with radio or television reception is allowed.
- c. Home occupations exclude the use of machinery or equipment that emits sound (for example, saws, drills, or musical instruments) detectable beyond the property.
- d. Chemical, electrical, or mechanical equipment that is not normally a part of domestic or household equipment which is used primarily for commercial purposes is not permitted.

6. Visitation

Total client visits are limited to five per week in conjunction with the home occupation, except that this restriction does not apply to a family day care home due to the overriding public goal of the care of children.

7. Employees and Licenses

Only occupants of the dwelling may work on the premises in connection with a home occupation. Any occupational licenses, including business registrations, required by State, County, or City regulations must be obtained. Proof of State registration, if required for the home occupation, must be submitted to the City before the issuance of a business license.

8. Uses Specifically Prohibited

The following uses are specifically prohibited as home occupations, except when otherwise a lawfully permitted use within the zoning district. This list is not all-inclusive. The Director may prohibit additional uses that do not meet the intent of these home occupation regulations.

- a. Adult entertainment establishments.
- b. All animal care, except hobby breeding, and except animal boarding and animal grooming when the total number of all animals being boarded or groomed does not exceed four.
- c. All medical uses.
- d. All indoor recreation uses.
- e. All industrial uses.
- f. All vehicular uses.
- g. Firewood sales.
- h. Funeral home, mortuary.
- i. Massage therapy.
- j. Psychic, fortune teller.
- k. Small or large engine repair or sales.
- l. Tattoo parlor or body piercing.

As the applicant of a Home Occupation I hereby agree to abide by the standards of Section 206-8.12 as stated above. Failure to abide by these regulations may result in revocation of your Home occupation license or the issuance of citations.
